

Cape Jourimain (NB) to Borden (PEI)

- Megan Surrette (37) Time 6:43:12, Non-Wetsuit
- Nationality: Canadian-born and residing in Perth, Western Australia

Support

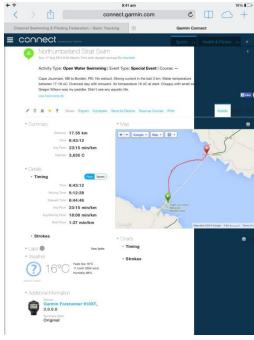

- Safety kayaker: Gregor Wilson
- No details of other on-water support.

Date & Times

- 17th August 2014
- Start Time: 06:30 hrs

Conditions: Weather etc.

- Water temperature 17-18°C
- Overcast day with showers
- Choppy with small swell
- Air Temperature 16°C at the start
- Strong Current in the last 3 km
- No signs of aquatic life

Garmin Forerunner Data

Other Details

- GPS details recorded via a Garmin Forerunner 910XT wrist-worn device, as seen in the photos. The device weighs approximately 92 g.
- Megan used zinc oxide cream and lanoline (Wool fat). Those Aussies are trained to be careful about exposure to the sun!
- Megan also completed the Rottnest Channel sea-swim in Western Australia earlier in 2014 in a time of 6:42:57.
- She repeated her Rottnest success on 21st February 2015, with a time of 7:46:27.64 and placing as the 47th Female to finish the course.

Megan Surrette Updated 25th April 2015 -0-